FAITH FOR GENERATIONS- DUMBO OR RAMBO?

Which film you choose to watch may differ greatly depending on whether or not you have kids watching too. How does that same filter apply in what we do as a church community as we seek to model faith as part of a multigenerational church? What can we learn from children and how does what we do as influential adults impact the younger generations around us? Next February we begin a journey to explore how faith is cultivated and the role every one of us has to play in passing faith on to the next generation.
