RACE WEEK ACTIVITIES

Monday 12th March 8-9pm in church - all are invited to join us for a special prayer meeting.

As well as seeking God for the well-being of our town, we want to mark the launch of a longer-term campaign being led by Trinity and a number of other churches called 'Not on our Turf!'

The aim is to invite as many individuals, businesses, organisations and groups as we can from across our community to make a public stand against all forms of human-trafficking and slavery. Together let's set our town on a path to being completely slave free! The NOOT commitments are:

- We believe life is a gift. Everyone deserves to be free from the oppression and fear of slavery and human trafficking.
- We support all efforts to create awareness and eradicate slavery and human trafficking in our community.
- We will do whatever we can to help support victims.
- We commit to look, listen, ask questions and act.
- We commit to a slave free Cheltenham

Please add your support by following @nootchelt and sign up at notonourturf.org.

13th, 14th or 15th March 4.45pm-6:00pm at church- A team led by the local Hope
For Justice group will be handing out donuts and leaflets, on Portland Street, to raise awareness of slavery. Alongside this, there will also be groups praying in church and out on the streets. If you or your Life Group want to get involved, please contact Jacqui.
