

Dan James
Huddle Leader- Younger Youth Boys
 'I'm Dan an outdoorsman with a passion for books and travel while working as Civil Engineer. I'm looking forward to helping our young people grow towards Jesus and gathering together for community'

Chris Whisker
Huddle Leader- Younger Youth Boys
 'I am married to Sophie and have 3 beautiful children. For my job I am a senior engineer at a research company that specialised in Machine Intelligence and Deep Learning. In my spare time I enjoy bored games and DIY. I love huddles because it builds community and provides a space to share and grow in faith together.'

Gracie Flack
Huddle Leader- Younger Youth Girls
 'I'm currently on a gap year, spending my time teaching piano. In my spare time I love drinking Oreo milkshakes. I love huddles, developing relationships with the girls and seeing them grow in their faith'

Emma Holland
Huddle Leader- Younger Youth Girls
 'I've been at trinity for 4 years, as an intern, student and now I've graduated as a Primary School teacher! I love sunny weather, water parks and anything where I can be competitive!! I love being a part of huddles because it's a huge privilege to journey with the young girls in my group as they build relationships with each other and encourage one another in their faith!'

Joe Burgess
Huddle Leader- Older Youth Boys
 'I'm married to Rosie and have a little boy called Zach. I work as a youth worker for The Rock in Cheltenham. I have a passion for playing drums, sport and eating good food. I love being part of Huddles as it's a great opportunity for young people to grow their faith in a fun and safe environment.'

James Simms
Huddle Leader- Older Youth Boys
 'I am in my 3rd year of Sport and exercise science at university, and love playing guitar during my free time. Huddles is a highlight of my week as the young people being so much joy to my life and never fail to make me laugh and amaze me by their hunger for the Lord and their understanding of Him and the bible.'

Chloe Anderson

Huddle Leader- Older Youth Girls

Chloe Anderson

'I'm 26 years old, work for The Worship Foundation, and love Jesus, good food, songwriting and charity shopping. I love huddles because they give us an opportunity to connect as a smaller group on a deeper level - learning about and listening to each other and God, encouraging and praying for one another, having a laugh and eating too many snacks (is there such a thing as too many snacks?!).'

Naomi Blyth

Trainee Youth Pastor

'I am currently studying a Theology and Youth Ministry degree whilst on placement at Trinity. I also do some nannying part time and love to eat good food with friends. Something that brings me so much joy is building relationships with young people and walking alongside them as they journey with God.'

Rosie Burgess

Assistant Youth Pastor

'I am married to Joe, have a little boy called Zach and a cat called Haribo. I work for Trinity doing a mix of youth and media/communications. I love the sunshine, going on holiday and eating dairy milk chocolate. I love our young people, seeing them grow in their faith and get to know God better. I also love all the fun, life and wisdom that they bring.'

Tim O'Leary

Senior Youth Pastor

'I'm Tim, I am 30 years old and married to the wonderful Melissa. I enjoy playing computer games, eating out, going on holiday and hanging out with my family. I absolutely love being the Youth Pastor, and having the privilege of journeying alongside our brilliant young people, and leading our fabulous team.'
