Good morning!

"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" (Romans 10:13-15)

I've been hearing this question again recently: "Much of the country is caring for the vulnerable and looking out for their neighbour. What makes the ministry of Christians distinctive or any different?"

Well worth pondering that one.....! What's your answer?

One of the starting points must surely relate to the desire we carry - which only reflects the fierce yearning of the Father - to see people saved; to see their deepest need of all being met, being born again into a loving eternal relationship with God through Jesus. Let's pray again today specifically for people to come to faith in this season.....

1) For God's whole church to have 'beautiful feet' and be bold in witness - in loving actions, in demonstrations of his supernatural power, in proclamations of his truth and goodness, in personal testimonies of his faithfulness...

For Trinity specifically.....

For your Life Group specifically.....

For you.....

Pray to bring the love of God to someone today.

2) You may want to pray this simple prayer:

Father, have mercy on.....Reveal yourself to him/her.

Jesus, have mercy on.....Call him/her to yourself.

Holy Spirit, have mercy on.....Let him/her find no peace until he/she finds it in you.

For:

- members of our own families who do not yet know the Lord
- those who have wandered away from their earlier convictions
- friends holding Jesus at arm's length
- work colleagues
- key leaders and influencers in our nation
- others whom the Holy Spirit may bring to your mind
